Visitor Services Associate:

The Visitor Services Associate is the first person to welcome visitors to the museum and the nature of that encounter will profoundly influence the visitor's experience from beginning to end. The Visitor Services Associate is responsible for providing our guests with exceptional customer service, following proper uniform standards, maintaining a clean and organized work environment and gaining a thorough knowledge of job duties, policy and procedures, and a working knowledge of the museum and its collection.

Visitor Services Associates shall, at all times, engage visitors through direct eye contact, a friendly smile and lively conversation, not only when on duty at a specific location, but at all times and in all places on campus while wearing the uniform. Visitor Services Associates shall always be aware of a visitor's presence and, even if engaged in other work (stocking store shelves, working on a project, etc.), shall stop to engage the visitor in a friendly, welcoming manner. Light conversation with visitors such as: "Welcome to the Whitehead Memorial Museum", "Is this your first visit with us?" , "Where are you visiting from today?" . "May I help you?" , "Are you looking for a gift or souvenir?" , "Did you enjoy your visit-is there anything else we can do for you before you leave us today?" , shall be standard conversational procedure for all Museum staff.

Museum staff members must also have the ability to handle large crowds of visitors calmly and efficiently and the adaptability to deal with tasks that merge educational, entertainment and visitor experiences beyond handling the Museum Store and Front Desk admissions.
